

DECLARES GOD IS GREAT PHYSICIAN

Christian Science Beliefs Are Explained by Judge Ewing of Chicago.

REAL CONCEPT OF CHRIST PURPOSE TO ADD TO GOOD OF WORLD.

Judge William D. Ewing, C. S. D., of Chicago, delivered an address on Christian Science in the Salt Lake theatre last evening. There was a large attendance and the lower floor and the two lower galleries were filled with attentive listeners. Judge Ewing is a member of the Christian Science board of lecturers and is making a tour of the country to deliver these lectures. The speaker was introduced by C. B. Stevens, and the lecture was under the auspices of the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, of this city.

"Judge Ewing's remarks in part follow: 'Prejudice is the enemy of progress; it would mock equity, degrade charity, traduce truth, debase right, pollute justice, it is devilish, it is premeditation, judgment without evidence, conclusion without reason, conviction without thought.'

"It is no part of my purpose to take anything from you, but to add to the good you have; I have no quarrel with your church; I simply commend the sweetness and love and song of my own, and thank God for the sweetness and love and song of yours.

"I believe there never has been an association of conscientious men and women for the purpose of building up God's kingdom that does not today rest as a benediction on the world.

Religion Must Be Lived.

"I assert, in this magnificent presence, that there is not a phase of the religion of Jesus Christ represented on earth—I care not what your phase of it may be—that is worth the snap of your finger or mine, unless that religion is lived.

"The expectant children of men the world around are grasping the fact that the religion of Jesus Christ is not a religion of words, of ceremony, of platitudes, professions, confessions, or creeds, but a religion of works, of fruits, of demonstration.

"Religious belief in God can not be ascertained from human speech. What you do, not what you say, determines the status of your real belief in God, your concept of God. A declaration of intent to express in finite language the creature's obedience to God, trust in God, and reliance upon God.

"Christian Scientists believe that their life is in God, that God is their strength and Redeemer, and know that they believe it, demonstrate their belief by going to God, and God only, for life, strength and redemption from all sickness, sorrow and sin.

The Great Physician.

"We believe that God is not only the embodiment of good, but that He is good; the 'Great Physician,' who heals all our diseases. 'Who gives succor to the sorrow, who literally wipes all tears away, and we confidently go to this infinite source of life and strength and joy for redemption from every ill that comes to humanity.

"If God makes you sick, when His purpose of doing so is subverted, He will make you well again, and your little children will tell you that until His purpose is subverted, no medicine of man will make you well.

"Our contention is that God is good, and that, if good at all, is infinitely good, for there is none other beside Him; that if infinitely good at any time He is infinitely good always and everywhere, for He is everywhere and without the shadow of turning."

MURRAY.

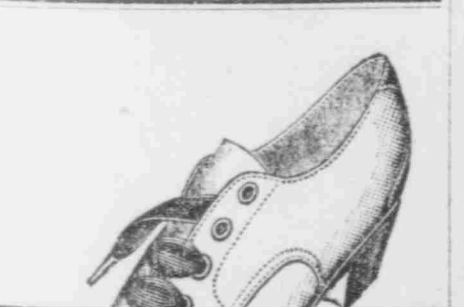

Mrs. Harriet A. Smith died of heart failure at her home in the vicinity of Murray at an early hour Sunday morning. Mrs. Smith was the wife of Thomas Smith, who died eleven years ago. Mrs. Smith was born in Rugby, England, Feb. 13, 1832, and had been a resident of Murray twenty-seven years. She is the mother of sixteen children, seven boys and nine girls. Funeral services will be held in the Murray first ward chapel Tuesday afternoon.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

For warm weather—nothing as comfortable on the foot as a tan Oxford

Our No. 724 is a winner—a splendid tan calf, Blucher Oxford—a money-back guarantee, with the Davis money-back guarantee attached. The pair..... $3.35

See many other styles in the window.

Davis
MONEY-BACK-SHOES
238-240 Main Street.

Ogden News

Office—410 Twenty-fifth Street.
Circulation Department, 308 Twenty-fifth Street.

Ogden, Monday, May 3.

O. K. FOR HORSES; A DASH FOR BOOKS

Rev. Mr. Elderkin Discusses Race Meeting and Gambling in Sermon.

Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin, pastor of the First Congregational church, took a fall out of race track gambling in a pulpit editorial read to his congregation last evening. His subject was "Back of the Horses." Mr. Elderkin said in this connection:

"No one objects to a good, honest contest for supremacy between well trained and managed horses. Ogden ought to rejoice in its opportunity to further the interests of clean sport. This meet which is to be here this week, we are told, will give Ogden the center of the sporting stage for a few days. The spot light will be turned this way. Ogden is being boosted. Naturally such good fortune rejoices us.

"But in the midst of our exuberance it may be well to pause for a moment for the story which is back of these horses. And in the first place we are confronted with the fact that the sport isn't the horses is a huge gambling enterprise, the course we are assured that the obnoxious ring will be organized and run from Ogden plunger, and will be operated wholly in the interest of the 'marks' of the city.

"One by one progressive states are taking steps, not to suppress horse racing, but to suppress the pernicious adjunct of the sport, California fought its fight against them last winter.

"These bookmakers who are well equipped with open arms are the men California dubbed undesirable. Before the promoters brought the horses here they did not care for the city, but when they did canvass the officials of the city to learn whether or not they could be introduced in the operation of a gambling attachment. Forsooth, did they not know that Ogden was the fostering mother of protected gambling?

"And in so far as they give us clean racing they ought to be encouraged. Spend your afternoon at the fair grounds if you can, but keep away from the ring. Save the money you itch to toss these fellows and buy dry goods or strawberries or some good cigars and remember, too, that only the other day you were praising Governor Hughes for his noble efforts to stamp out the horrible institution of race track gambling. Were not those your very words?"

OPENING OF VIADUCT.

Ceremonies Planned for Transfer to City on Wednesday.

There will be a public demonstration in this city Wednesday afternoon to celebrate the completion of the Harriman viaduct across the railroad yards in this city. The exact nature of the program has not yet been determined, but it is most likely to partake of the nature of an automobile parade across the viaduct to West Ogden and back with some simple ceremony to indicate the presentation of the viaduct by the railroads to the city and the acceptance by the city. Mayor A. L. Brewer said yesterday that nothing had yet been done in the matter, but he thought the viaduct would not be thrown open to the general public until later in the week, for the reason that much of the paint was still too fresh.

COLONISTS ARE MANY.

Over 1,000 Pass Through Ogden on Sunday.

Colonists on their way to the west and north west in search of homes, crowded the union depot in this city yesterday. It was one of the busiest days for the local officials since the city was established. It was estimated that upward of 1,000 colonists passed through this city during the day, a large majority of them being from the crowded cities of the east to the more open country on the Pacific coast. The Rio Grande brought 37 homeseekers to Ogden during the day. There were two sections of No. 1. Southern Pacific No. 3 went west from here in two sections, and No. 7 went north on the Oregon Short Line in two sections also. The three day freighters among these colonists, but for the

SAVING HER LEGS.

Little Miss Caroline, aged 6 or thereabouts, was to be flower girl at a wedding. In planning her costume it was decided that she should wear pink socks, which and about half way to the knee. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

"Why are you wearing stockings, Caroline?" she asked.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

PIANO LESSONS.

By experienced teacher. Address S. 5, Herald.

FIGHTING THE GREAT WHITE PLAGUE

IN THIS STATE PART OF WOMEN'S WORK

covered. He was removed to St. Mark's hospital, in the hope of helping him, and here he was kept by the kindly officers of the Hospital Aid society for six months. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

"Why are you wearing stockings, Caroline?" she asked.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

By experienced teacher. Address S. 5, Herald.

Utah's first fresh air camp for cure of tuberculosis.

covered. He was removed to St. Mark's hospital, in the hope of helping him, and here he was kept by the kindly officers of the Hospital Aid society for six months. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

"Why are you wearing stockings, Caroline?" she asked.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

By experienced teacher. Address S. 5, Herald.

Utah's first fresh air camp for cure of tuberculosis.

covered. He was removed to St. Mark's hospital, in the hope of helping him, and here he was kept by the kindly officers of the Hospital Aid society for six months. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

"Why are you wearing stockings, Caroline?" she asked.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

By experienced teacher. Address S. 5, Herald.

Utah's first fresh air camp for cure of tuberculosis.

covered. He was removed to St. Mark's hospital, in the hope of helping him, and here he was kept by the kindly officers of the Hospital Aid society for six months. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

"Why are you wearing stockings, Caroline?" she asked.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

By experienced teacher. Address S. 5, Herald.

Utah's first fresh air camp for cure of tuberculosis.

covered. He was removed to St. Mark's hospital, in the hope of helping him, and here he was kept by the kindly officers of the Hospital Aid society for six months. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

"Why are you wearing stockings, Caroline?" she asked.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

"I'm saving my legs for the wedding," was Caroline's reply.

By experienced teacher. Address S. 5, Herald.

Utah's first fresh air camp for cure of tuberculosis.

covered. He was removed to St. Mark's hospital, in the hope of helping him, and here he was kept by the kindly officers of the Hospital Aid society for six months. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

most part they were prosperous looking, happy people. Local officials are of the opinion that the rush will be over in two or three days more.

WESTERN PACIFIC WORK.

W. H. Wattis Returns From Trip Over the Line.

W. H. Wattis of the Utah Construction company, returned home last night after an inspection trip over the entire line of the Western Pacific in company with Chief Engineer Virgil C. Esquire. Mr. Wattis will be in Ogden for several days looking after business matters. He reports on the closing of the line, the large Sunday work progressing, and says that it will be pushed with more vigor than ever now that the weather has become settled.

Funerals.

The body of J. M. Harris was brought here from Salt Lake City yesterday for burial. Funeral services will be held at the Larkin undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock this afternoon. They will be in charge of Bishop Carl E. Peterson. Interment will be in the Ogden City cemetery.

Funeral services for Mrs. Susan M. Russell were held yesterday afternoon in the Fifth ward meeting house in this city. Bishop H. C. Jacobs presiding over the service. The choir sang an appropriate solo and the ward choir rendered several numbers. Among the speakers were President C. F. Middleton, President John Watson, Patriarch George W. Kin, Bishop H. C. Jacobs and William Koldewyne. The services were largely attended and there was a vast throng of friends testifying to the high regard in which Mrs. Russell was held in the community.

Laura Ann McKenzie, the infant daughter of Mrs. Olive Savage McKenzie, will be buried from the family home, 1511 Center street in the Glasgow addition, at 11 o'clock this morning. Deep sympathy is felt for Mrs. McKenzie in this community. She came recently from Australia, and since then has lost by death her husband and little daughter.

Ogden Briefs.

S. T. Whitaker came down from Idaho yesterday to spend Sunday with his family in Ogden. He is supervising the construction of a new high school building in Casella county.

Yesterday was the ninth consecutive Sunday on which no arrests were made in this city by the local police. No arrests have been made on these days, not even for drunkenness or vagrancy. All saloons were closed tight and so as outward appearance would indicate.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Whittemore of this city left Saturday for Boston, Mass., to attend the national convention of the Order of Railroad Conductors as a delegate from Ogden lodge. He and his wife will then visit in the east for a month or more.

Most of the officials of the Utah Department of the South are present at a conference in the office of Superintendent E. C. Manson in this city yesterday. It was one of the regular monthly conferences inaugurated some time ago, at which questions of interest to the officials are discussed in all their bearings.

VICTIM OF HEART DISEASE.

Death of Mrs. Vilate Bennett King at Kaysville.

Kaysville, May 1.—Mrs. Vilate Bennett King, the young wife of Orton King of Ogden, died at the home of her father, James P. Bennett in Kaysville yesterday morning after an illness of more than a month. The cause of her death was heart disease. Her death was caused by the death of her brother, Wilford Bennett, less than a year ago. Mrs. Bennett recently gave birth to a child, and since that time, notwithstanding she had all the medical help that could be given her, she became weaker. A few days ago she was brought here from Ogden to end her days at her father's home. Her husband and child survive here. The deceased was born in Kaysville on Jan. 27, 1884, and up to the time of her marriage had always lived here. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in the Kaysville meeting house.

This is the third death of adult members of James P. Bennett's family in less than a year. His son died last summer, followed in November by his wife, and now a married daughter is called from the same afflicted family.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Word comes from Ogden that William Taylor, formerly of Kaysville, and now in Ogden, is lying in a very critical condition at his home in Ogden. It is said that his life is despaired of, partial paralysis having followed an attack of Bright's disease. Mr. Taylor's many Kaysville friends are hoping for better news of his condition.

Utah's first fresh air camp for cure of tuberculosis.

covered. He was removed to St. Mark's hospital, in the hope of helping him, and here he was kept by the kindly officers of the Hospital Aid society for six months. Miss Caroline was always worn socks in the summer time, so it surprised the bride, her small attendant wearing stockings and looking comfortable in them.

The good housewife uses good things for the table. That is why she always uses Hewlett's Uncolored Tea.

AMUSEMENTS

From the moment that the curtain went up on the act of the Blessings, European premier equilibrist, until it went down on the closing act of Rosaire and Borela, comedy eccentricities, the large Sunday night audience at the Orpheum last evening was highly entertained. The new bill for this week, while perhaps not as strong as a whole as the bill of last week, is far ahead of the average bill. It is a bill replete with new-idea acts. It contains variety, and the applause which greeted each act last night was evidence that the bill was one which met with general favor. There are no weak joints in the bill. One can pick the program with a pin with the eyes shut and hit a headliner. Madame Blessing, who has been a feature of the Orpheum, is a beautiful and strongest woman in the world, appears with her husband in acrobatic and equilibrist work, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty, and they are both clever. Ralph Post and Eddie Russell, who were unable to do their regular stunt, their makeshift, however, was entirely entertaining and very artistic in the production was the act of James McDaniel and Val Huntington, singers. They introduced character songs in a most pleasing manner and earned the generous applause they received. Lizzie Evans and the Berlin parents have been a feature of the Orpheum, and the couple made an instant hit with the audience. She is pretty